Curriculum Development Rubric

Objective	Description and Points Available				Points	Comment
	2	3	4	5
Objective #1: Determined 5 top areas of interest	0-2 areas identified	3 areas identified	4 areas identified	All 5 areas identified
Objective #2: Described a job from the interest area	Included little information about the job	Included some information; several pieces of information missing or incomplete	Included most of information about the job	Included complete information about the job
Objective #3 Locate 3 educational institutions that provide instruction in area of interest and describe instructional program of each	Information provided for institutions in area of interest was mostly incomplete or missing entirely for program of study	Provided information for less than 3 institutions or a significant part of information missing from program of study	Information mostly complete for 3 institutions in program of study	Included 3 institutions and provided all information for program of study
Objective #4: Describe differences in jobs available based on education of applicant	Included none or 1 area of difference	Included 2 areas of difference	Included 3 areas of difference	Included 4 or more areas of difference
Objective #5: Select a career that might be suited for working from home, freelance or contract, and small business ownership or entrepreneurship	No career selected or on reasons given for why it would be a good fit.	Career selected included one reason for the good fit.	Career selected included more than one reason for the good fit.	Career selected included several reasons the job would be well suited for this career arrangement
Objective #6: Report used one of the specified formats and included information about the career development investigation including expected status of student by 2015.	Report was not submitted or was missing numerous categories of information specified for the project.	Report did not include several categories of information specified for the project	Report included most of the information specified for the project.	Report included all information specified for the project.		